ASCO Site License Subscriptions

Keep your patrons at the forefront of oncology science and clinical practice with a site license subscription to ASCO journals and meeting products.

JCO® Digital Library

The JCO Digital Library serves readers as the most credible peer-reviewed resources for significant clinical oncology research, and practical information that informs the delivery of efficient, high-quality patient cancer care across the globe. The JCO Digital Library subscription includes:

• Journal of Clinical Oncology
  Publishes practice-changing clinical cancer research and is the authoritative source for current information on the diagnosis and treatment of patients with cancer. Includes content back to 2004.

• JCO® Oncology Practice (formerly known as Journal of Oncology Practice)
  Keeps oncology practices current on changes and challenges inherent in delivering high-quality oncology care. Includes content back to 2005.

• JCO® Precision Oncology
  Provides information to advance the science and practice of precision oncology and define genomics-driven clinical care of patients with cancer. Includes content back to 2017.

• JCO® Clinical Cancer Informatics
  Disseminates clinically relevant research based on biomedical informatics methods and processes applied to cancer-related information. Includes content back to 2017.

Institutions can also access these publications, which are free to access and read:

• JCO® Global Oncology (formerly known as Journal of Global Oncology)
  Open access journal about cancer care, research, and care delivery issues unique to countries and settings with limited healthcare resources.

• ASCO® Educational Book
  Annual volume of articles based on Annual Meeting education sessions that highlights the most compelling research and developments across the multidisciplinary fields of oncology and serves as an enduring scholarly resource long after the Meeting concludes.

• ASCO® Daily News
  ASCO Daily News is the official conference reporter of the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO), providing high-quality, unbiased research summaries and oncology news to ASCO members and oncology health care providers. Editorial content is designed to further the education of oncology health care providers and increase the quality of patient care.

Important Note: Online access is not available for individual publications—you must subscribe to the JCO Digital Library to access all publications content online.
Instantly access the top oncology research from ASCO meetings with a subscription to the ASCO Meeting Library.

- ASCO® Meeting Videos
  Watch and listen to hundreds of presentations from the ASCO Annual Meeting and thematic symposia held each year.

- ASCO® Meeting Slides
  Browse and download the slides that were used in captured presentations from the ASCO Annual Meeting and thematic symposia held each year.

Subscribe to videos, slides, or both. Active site license subscribers get access to meeting content going back to 2014.

IMPORTANT TIER DESCRIPTION NOTES

1. All tier assignments are subject to periodic evaluation by the Publisher.
2. Institutions are assigned to Tiers 1–3 if they operate from a single site at a single geographic location except where noted. A single institution with more than one site or location (e.g., a research university with a teaching hospital or with multiple geographically dispersed campuses) is classified as Tier 4 and prices are negotiated. Individually negotiated multi-site licenses (Tiers 5-6) are required for consortia, corporations, and other institutions having shared network access.
3. For multi-site licenses, please contact the appropriate sales representative for a quote.
4. All prices are in effect from 1 September 2019 through 31 August 2020. Prices are subject to change.
